State of Illinois
Illinois Stimulus Data Stream
Data Dictionary

Version 1.0

Table of Contents

1   Documents Revisions

Date	Update
November 20, 2009	Document created to reflect the description of Illinois Data Stream

2 Illinois Data Stream

The Illinois Data Stream produces a comma delimited file (csv) of stimulus information from Illinois state agencies who have received federal stimulus grants. This data will be available to the public to download. The comma delimited file can be downloaded either by State Agency or by Project Type.

2.1.1.1 Fields

The following table outlines the fields in that are available on the csv file.

Field Label	Description
Project	This field displays the name of the project that the state agency is utilizing the federal funds.
Project Type	This field displays what category this project falls under. State of Illinois has the following categories: • Economic Development • Education • Energy and Environment • Health and Human Services • Labor • Public Safety • Transportation
Project Description	This field displays a detail description of the project
Agency	This field will display the state agency name in Illinois that the project is undertaken
Federal Congressional District	This field will display the Congressional District number that benefited from the improvement of the project.
Funding Program	This field displays the funding program name. The Funding program name relates to the name that was allocated by Federal government for grants allocated
Program Number/CFDA	This field displays the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) number. It correlates to the Funding program name
Recipient	This field displays the recipient name who is directly being paid by the state agency for the project
City	This field displays the city where the project is conducted
State	This field displays the State name
Recipient Type	This field display either Vendor or Sub-recipient
Awarded Amount	This field displays the amount that has been awarded to the recipient from the federal grant
Report Date	This field displays the report date as of when this information was collected
Disbursed Amount	This field displays the cumulative amount that has been distributed to the recipient as of the report date
Number of Jobs Created	This field displays the number of jobs that have been created/retained based on the funding provided by the federal government. This number is and average.

Jobs Created Description	This field displays the description of the job that was created
Subaward Id	This field displays the sub award number where applicable